

Safety & Survival Workshop II - Underwater Egress: How to Save Your Life in a Water Landing

It's dark, it's wet, it's COLD and you are upside down, or at least you think you are upside down. The biggest question to you and your passengers is, "How do I get out of here?" Do you know how? Bryan Webster, renowned aviation safety speaker and instructor based in British Columbia, returns to the aviation conference to demonstrate life-saving tips on water landing survival. Bryan is the DUNK-You representative that helped us out with the tank in the exhibit hall in 2008. We are excited to have him returning!
